
Learning Objectives

MedBridge

Participation in Community-Based Programs: Part Two

Dale Scalise-Smith, PT, DPT, PhD

Course Objectives

- Examine instruments currently available for measuring participation in community-based activities
- Recognize the role and responsibilities of families, children, interprofessional teams, governmental leaders and community leaders in involving children and youth with disabilities in community-based activities
- Appraise the impact of the participation of children and youth with disabilities in community-based activities