
Learning Objectives

MedBridge

The Mighty Vestibular System

Tracy Stackhouse, MA, OTR/L

Course Objectives:

- Identify and recognize manifestations of vestibular dysfunction or processing difficulties children
- Obtain sound understanding of vestibular processing, from receptor to central processing including the adaptive outcomes of behavior, learning, and occupational performance
- Describe and demonstrate appropriate assessments for vestibular, visual motor, equilibrium, posture, balance, reflex integration, motor skills, and sensory organization
- Describe and demonstrate effective treatment techniques for children with vestibular difficulties, including what is consistent with an ASI approach