

Learning Objectives

MedBridge

A Longer Look at Arthritis for Rehabilitation Nurses

Cheryl Lehman, PhD, RN, CNS-BC, CRRN

Course Objectives:

- Compare and contrast characteristics, diagnosis and treatment of various forms of arthritis.
- Examine the role that rehabilitation plays in the treatment of the patient with various forms of arthritis.
- Explore the role of the rehabilitation nurse in the care of the patient with various forms of arthritis.
- Explain nursing interventions for the management of arthritic pain.
- Identify key teaching points for the patient with various forms of arthritis.