

Learning Objectives

MedBridge

Nursing Management of Dementia: Family Adjustments & Driving Issues

Lisa Byrd PhD, FNP, GNP, FAANP

- Identify the physical and psychological changes affecting an older individual with dementia that affect their ability to live independently
- Recognize common issues occurring in the family of a person with dementia
- Understand how cognitive impairment in dementia affects an individual's ability to drive