
Learning Objectives

MedBridge

Cancer Survivorship: Treatment-Related Effects Part Two

Michelle Kirschner MSN, RN, APRN-BC, ACNP

Course Objectives:

- Prioritize the elements of a lymphedema program in the treatment of a survivorship patient with newly diagnosed symptoms
- List three tools utilized in the neurocognitive assessment of cancer survivors
- Outline the guideline recommendations for screening for myocardial effects from high-risk chemotherapy agents
- Clarify the role of cancer rehabilitation staff in the care of a cancer survivor