
Learning Objectives

MedBridge

Diabetes Management for the Low Vision Client

Marlene Snow, OTR/L, SCLV

Course Objectives:

- Determine what OT practitioner role is in assisting those with diabetes.
- Identify what causes diabetes and the current incident of diabetes in America.
- Describe the eye conditions associated with diabetes.
- Learn how to count carbohydrates and how to teach patients about healthy eating.
- Explain to patients the correct way to test their blood sugar.
- Assist patients with managing medications that are associated with managing diabetes.
- Choose appropriate exercises for patients with diabetic retinopathy.
- Determine what to do for patients who are experiencing a diabetic emergency.
- Adapt treatment for patients who have visual problems due to diabetes.