

Learning Objectives

MedBridge

Orthopedic Management of the Ambulatory Child with Cerebral Palsy

Dora Gosselin, PT, DPT, PCS, cNDT

Course Objectives:

- Review the etiology of cerebral palsy.
- Understand the consequences of posture and movement dysfunction on the gait of children with cerebral palsy.
- Systematically perform an observational clinical gait analysis.
- Understand the current trends in orthopedic surgery for ambulatory children with cerebral palsy and the associated outcomes.
- Perform a thorough musculoskeletal and neuromuscular clinical examination of a child with cerebral palsy.
- Interpret clinical examination findings accurately.