

Learning Objectives

MedBridge

Preventing Lawsuits in Long-Term Care: Strategies for Administrators

Kristen L. Mauk, PhD, DNP, RN, CRRN, GCNS-BC, GNP-BC, FAAN

Cheryl Lehman, PhD, RN, CNS-BC, CRRN

Amy Magnano, JD

Course Objectives:

- Discuss the types of errors and patient situations that often end in legal action against administrators in long-term care facilities.
- Identify key concepts related to litigation such as poor documentation, not meeting the standard of care, and malpractice.
- Describe how a legal case commonly proceeds.
- Devise strategies for senior leadership to prevent legal action in long-term care.
- Discuss how to respond if called to give a deposition or court testimony in a lawsuit.